26th September 2023

Dear Parent/Carer

On Wednesday 11th October 2023, Nicola Turner from St Mary Magdalene Church in Hucknall will be coming into school to deliver our Harvest Festival. Alongside being thankful for the Harvest, we will also be exploring the issue of global, national, and local poverty in school. Linked to this will be a focus on the work of our local food bank to help alleviate the struggles that some families face in our community.

We would be extremely grateful for any donations that your child could bring into school to contribute towards the school donation that will be given to the Hucknall Food Bank after our Harvest Festival. Please see below for a list of possible ideas of non-perishable goods for donations:

- Tinned foods such as soup, vegetables, tuna, tomatoes, beans
- Tinned fruit
- Long life milk
- Biscuits / crackers
- Instant mash
- Rice pudding
- Pack of tea bags
- Toiletries including sanitary products
- Pasta
- Rice
- Cous Cous
- Cereal
- Tea/Coffee/Hot Chocolate
- Jams and Spreads
- Washing up liquid
- Laundry detergent pods

Your child can bring their donations into school from 27th September and hand them to their class teacher. All donations will be gratefully received.

Many thanks for your support
