NEWSLETTER

Important Messages

this week

Thank you to those families who shared feedback on our Newsletter via the Forms shared last week. Our feedback has been informative and showed that 76% of families read the newsletter but only 53% found the information was always useful. We have been increasing our use of Class Dojo for sharing and 65% of families who responded felt that they would prefer communication currently shared on the Newsletter to come via Dojo. This will therefore be our last school newsletter, and we will begin sharing information such as mentions winners, attendance and key news via Class Dojo to support with responding to the views you have shared in this survey. We will take feedback on how this is going at the end of the Spring Term. In the meantime, if you are not yet connected to your child's Class Dojo, please see their teacher who will support with connecting you up.
