Reading
Challenge 1: Who lives in your house? Ask your grown up to make a list of everyone's name in your house. Look at the list, which letters do you recognise? Can you spot your name? Can you read any other names? Do any names begin with the same letter?	Challenge 2: Read while you walk! On your daily walk have a close look at road signs, street names, car registration plates and any other signs. Can you spot any letters that you know together? Do you recognise any logos?	Challenge 3: Read to your toys! Gather your favourite teddies and toys and sit them down comfortably. They may like some cushions or a blanket to sit on. Using one of your favourite stories, show the pictures to your toys and tell them the story. Tell them our listening rules! Make sure they can all see! Can you use some story language such as... Once Upon a Time, One day, Happily Ever After or The end?
Flashback: Run Wild!
Can you remember/do you know what it means to be 'brave'? When do you think you have been brave? Can you think of a story where character had to be brave? Can you create a story with your toys where they have to be brave?
Weekly Learning Challenge - Mister Maker.
Challenge 1 Make a potion! Using an old plastic bottle see if you can make a potion or perfume. Add a little bit of water to the bottle, go outside and add some things from nature. Give your bottle a shake. What can you smell? What is your potion called?	Challenge 2 Mr Maker has a sock puppet. Using an old sock can you create a sock puppet? You could add bits of material or paper with glue or draw on your sock with felt tip pens. Give your puppet a name. Ask your grown up to send a photo to your teacher!	Challenge 3 Using a potato and paint can you make a picture? Cut the potato in half and dip it into some paint, use this to print with. You can wash the potato to use a different colour. Can you make a caterpillar, a dotted pattern or a person? See what you can create!
